

PSYCHOANALYSIS AND POLITICS

FASCIST IMAGINARIES

AUTUMN SYMPOSIUM IN THE BERLIN PSYCHOANALYTICAL INSTITUTE,
KARL-ABRAHAM-INSTITUT (BPI), BERLIN, OCT. 1st-3rd 2021

This is an advance notice. A call for papers will be forthcoming April 2nd, with a deadline for abstracts May 2nd. You may conceive of the topic in terms of historical or contemporary phenomena, in various countries, and in terms of different schools of psychoanalytic thinking. Please make explicit the connection between the domains being addressed in your proposed presentation (psychoanalysis, politics, philosophy, literature...) as well as its relevance for each domain. If you are proposing a clinical paper, please make sure that the social or political relevance of the topic is made clear.

The format is: 30 min for your paper, 20 min for discussion, with a 10 min break in between each paper. Within the time frame given above, two or more people can present the same paper. However, proposals for panels consisting of two or more separate papers will not be considered.

We aim to be non-discriminatory and egalitarian. Disrespect or discrimination towards the forum or any of its participants on the basis of nationality, skin colour, ethnicity, religion, gender or sexuality will not be tolerated.

For the sake of everyone present, respect and consideration for everyone's ideas, you are expected to attend all the presentations and stay throughout the conference.

Psychoanalysis and Politics is an international and interdisciplinary conference series which aims to address how crucial contemporary political issues may be fruitfully analysed through psychoanalytic theory and vice versa – how political phenomena may reflect back on psychoanalytic thinking. We emphasise room for discussion among the presenters and participants, thus the symposium series creates a space where representatives of different perspectives come together and engage with one another's contributions, participating in a community of thought.

Psychoanalysis and Politics is registered as a non-profit organization in Norway with the org.no. 998 503 221. Conferences have been held in 10 European countries since 2010.

Webpage: www.psa-pol.org